

THREE CANDIDATES FOR LEGISLATURE

Active Campaign in District
Composed of Prince George and Surry.

PEOPLE NOT SATISFIED

They Do Not Like Action Taken by State Board of Education.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
109 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., June 29.

There are three candidates in the field for the House of Delegates in the legislative district composed of the counties of Prince George and Surry, which is entitled to only one representative. The candidates are: Dr. William B. Daniel, of Prince George, the present delegate; S. B. Barham, Jr., an ex-delegate, and W. S. Burr, both of Surry county. An active canvass has been in progress for some time, and the nomination will be made at the State primary election, to be held on August 6. At the legislative election the vote of the two counties nearly balanced each other. The three candidates will have to pay an assessment fee of $20 each, that is, $10 each in each of the counties. The Democratic County Committee of Prince George met yesterday and appointed judges and clerks of election to serve at the August primary.

In Dinwiddie county only one candidate has so far announced himself for the House of Delegates—C. E. Rivers. The present delegate, Thomas S. Clarke, who has represented the county for several terms in the House, has not yet been heard from, and it is not known whether he intends to offer for re-election.

Petersburg has only one candidate so far, in the person of Samuel W. Zim, a popular young attorney and graduate of the University of Virginia.

Indications are that a well-known citizen of Matoca District, in Chesterfield, may be induced to announce himself a candidate for the House of Delegates from that county. At least his friends are urging him to do so, and it is understood that he has the matter under consideration.

Not Satisfied With the Board Action. Prince George county had two applicants for the position of Superintendent of Schools—Mr. Fenner, who has held the office for some years, and Mr. Williams, a competent young citizen of the Disputanta neighborhood, but it got neither. The State Board consolidated Prince George with Sussex, and elected Mr. Edwards, of the latter county, as superintendent of the district. While no fault is found with Mr. Edwards, the people of the county are dissatisfied with the action of the board, and have freely expressed their feeling of dissatisfaction, not to say indignation.

Election of Pythian Officers. At the meeting of Eureka Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held last night officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows:

Chancellor, Commander, George A. McCants; Vice-Chancellor, Fred H. Wright; Prelate, James E. Caldwell; Keeper of Records and Seal, Frank A. Owen; Master of Work, J. R. Charles; Master of Finance, A. D. Lockett; Master of Exchequer, James I. Joyner; Master-at-Arms, W. D. Traylor; Guard, B. B. Brown; Outside Guard, J. E. Story.

General News in Brief. William Simmons, an elderly and respectable colored citizen, was stricken down by paralysis to-day while walking down Halifax Street. One side of his body was affected. Persons who saw his condition ran to his assistance and had him sent to his home.

Evidence accumulated to indicate that the drowning of the negro boy, John Thwait, Sunday afternoon, of which nothing became publicly known until last night, was due to the wilful and frequent ducking of the boy in deep water by two of his companions, Henry and Austin Scott, said to be boys of bad character. The body of the drowned boy has not yet been recovered, and the Scotts will be held until it is found and an inquest is held.

A meeting of the Democratic City Central Committee was called for last night to consider matters relative to the coming State primary, but a quorum of members failed to show up, and an adjournment was ordered to a future day.

J. R. Jones, who has been awarded the contract for carrying the mails between the post-office and the railroad depots in this city, has provided three new regulation mail wagons, each with a spirited black horse for the purpose.

During the month ending June 26 births to the number of 58 were reported to the Health Department: Whites, 33; colored, 25. The mortality

NEW RAILROAD IS ASSURED FOR PEOPLE OF BLAND COUNTY.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PEABODY, Va., June 29.—Bland county is to have a railroad at last. The New River, Holston and Western Railroad Company has let the contract to W. O. Lipscomb, of Roanoke, for an eight-mile extension of its road, which takes it to Rocky Gap, within fourteen miles of Bland Courthouse. This road leaves the Norfolk and Western at Narrows, in Giles county, and runs up Wolfe Creek twenty-one miles into Bland county. This extension will develop a very fine agricultural country and what is regarded as the best undeveloped timber section in Southwest Virginia, as well as what is claimed to be a large deposit of iron ore. Leas & McVitty, who own a large tannery at this place and large holdings in this timber section, are the principal owners of the railroad. They have bought a manufacturing site of ten acres at Rocky Gap, and will probably establish a large plant for the purpose of extracting tannic acid from the chestnut wood owned by them.

North Carolina Charters. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., June 29.—Five new enterprises, with capital aggregating $252,000, were chartered to-day for various sections of the State, as follows: Hickory and Mule Company, Hickory, capital, $50,000, by L. P. Henkel and others; Panacea Springs Automobile and Electric Transfer Company, capital, $125,000, by Eugene Johnson and others; the Elkin Hardware Company, capital, $50,000, by E. P. McNear and others; the John W. Crowell Company, Lexington, $2,000, for coal, wood, ice and building material business; Hamlet Insurance and Realty Company, capital, $25,000, by C. H. Morrow and others; the International Fire Insurance Company, New York, is licensed by the State Commissioner of Insurance to do business in North Carolina.

Unveil Monument August 6. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PEABODY, Va., June 29.—McComas Chapter, U. D. C., met with Mrs. Martin Williams, and it was decided that the unveiling of its monument could not take place until August 6. Governor Swanson has written the daughters that if he can possibly do so he will be in Peabody that day, and make the principal address. James D. Johnston, of Roanoke, and Rev. Taylor Frazier, of Chihuahua, will also make addresses. A large crowd is expected from all parts of Southwest Virginia.

Accused of Theft. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, Va., June 29.—B. B. Butts, proprietor of a motion picture establishment, is under arrest on the charge of having diverted the electric current of the Lynchburg Traction and Light Company and appropriating it to his own use without the knowledge of the company. He has been released upon $100 bail bond for his appearance in the Police Court for trial to-morrow morning.

Temple Is Dedicated. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BRISTOL, Va., June 29.—The handsome new temple of Lynn Commandery, Knights Templars, at Marion, was dedicated to-day, with impressive ceremonies, and with many knights in attendance. The commanders are throughout Southwest Virginia.

COURTS OVERRULES MOTION TO QUASH

Alleged Wreckers of First National Must Face Charge of Conspiracy.

OBJECTION COMES TOO LATE

Judge Holds That Twelve-Year-Old Indictment Was Properly Returned.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 29.—In the United States District Court Judge Newman this morning overruled the motions made by counsel for W. H. Penland and Major W. E. Brees to quash the indictment for conspiracy to wreck the old First National Bank of this city and set the cases for trial July 26.

Judge Newman's opinion in the case is very lengthy and covers every contention made by the defendants' counsel. The defense based its motion on two grounds: First, that the grand jury had not been properly drawn in that the venire had been called merely for a jury, and second, that the bill of indictment had not been properly returned to the court in that it had been returned by the foreman alone and not by the whole body of the grand jury.

The court found that the grand jury which returned the indictment against the defendants marked "true bill," was properly drawn; that the indictment was returned in open court, with Judge Purnell, the presiding judge, on the bench; that the indictment was read by the presiding judge in open session and handed to the clerk and properly entered in the record.

Judge Newman drew a distinction between the manner of returning the bill of indictment in the Brees et al. case and the Brees et al. case, which were cited during the hearing on the motion to quash, and said that the facts were materially different.

Relative to the defendants making their plea in apt time and the objections raised by the defendants, Judge Newman stated that he ought to have known, as well when this indictment was returned as they know now how the bill was returned into court, yet they waited all these twelve years to raise the question. I am very much inclined to think that the objection comes too late, and I am satisfied in view of what occurred last July and what was considered by the defendants under oath in the motion then made, that they are not entitled to be heard or to make their objection on the manner in which the indictment was brought into court.

ALL EVIDENCE HEARD.

Case of J. C. Connolly, Held for Murder, Goes to Jury To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 29.—All the evidence has been heard and the instructions to the jury were in the hands of the judge in the case of J. C. Connolly, charged with murder, when the Corporation Court adjourned for the day late this evening. It is expected that the case will go to the jury to-morrow afternoon. Connolly is represented by Jack Lee, of Lynchburg, and R. M. Lett, of this city. Commonwealth's Attorney Berkley is prosecuting the case. The accused shot and killed William Jackson, colored, several weeks ago after he had quarreled over a water pipe across the sidewalk in front of Connolly's bottling works.

CONSPIRACY TO RAID HOLLAND'S CHICKEN COOPS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SUFFOLK, Va., June 29.—Constable William E. Whitfield to-day, in raids on alleged chicken thieves, Holland and his associates, charged with a conspiracy among whites and blacks by which it was meant to deplete the chicken coops of that community. As the outcome of a trial before Justice Elihu Joyner, Lonnie Brown and C. Lee, both colored, were ordered thrashed; James Smith, white, was given the same sentence, and Solomon Butler, white, aged nineteen, and the oldest of the lot, was held for indictment by the grand jury.

Kick of Colt Fatal. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, Va., June 29.—William Locke, son of Kemper Locke, living near Briggs, Clarke county, was kicked by a colt yesterday and died to-day from the injuries sustained.

Make Dustless Highway. The Henrico County Board of Supervisors is preparing to treat the lot in Tuckahoe District running from the Three Chop Road to Ridge Church and from Ridge Church along the Quaker Road to the River Road with specially prepared asphalt oil, which is guaranteed to make a dustless highway. And the application of the oil will be made by a contractor, and travelers are requested to keep off the highway until the oil settles and becomes dry. Then he will be ready for every one. Supervisor W. E. Grant is superintending the experiment.

Mayor Richardson Commends Work for National Highway

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

The report of the representatives of the New York Herald, the Atlanta Journal and of The Times-Dispatch, who recently made their automobile pathfinding tour, as to the condition of the roads in Virginia, and especially between Richmond and Washington, should cause us some humiliation, and inspire our people with a determination to permit such roads to be no longer a reproach to our State.

I am gratified to know that The Times-Dispatch and other papers intend to give their influence to the building of a highway between Richmond and Washington. For many years I have been an enthusiast on this subject. The advantages of such a highway to the people, not only of Virginia, but of the whole country, can scarcely be estimated.

The recent tour has demonstrated the fact that the present roads between Richmond and Washington must, to a great extent, be abandoned if we desire to build a national highway which will be creditable to the State and to the Union, and that the first steps necessary for the purpose will be to obtain from the General Assembly an appropriation to have a survey made of an entirely new route. This road should be made direct, and as level as possible, and it should run through the middle of Hanover and Caroline counties, through Spotsylvania to Fredericksburg and thence to Washington. Should it be deemed practicable branch roads might be constructed to Manassas and to Mount Vernon.

Such a highway would traverse the most historic section of the Union and a country in which more patriotic blood has been shed than in any other portion of the world. It could readily be built by contributions from the State, from the cities and counties through which it would pass, and by the labor of the people. The United States government would doubtless aid in its construction, as it would be used as a post road and lead to a number of battlefields and national cemeteries.

Besides the material advantages of such a road there are patriotic considerations which should induce us to construct it at once. As a "Union highway" connecting the capital of the country with the capital of the late Confederate States, it would show to the world that we are a united people.

It would be an inspiring sight, on the fiftieth anniversary of the conclusion of the war, to behold the President of the United States start from the national capital "On to Richmond" over this Union highway, followed by hundreds of vehicles with flags flying, cheered along the route and received with a hospitable welcome by the people of Richmond.

D. C. RICHARDSON, Mayor of Richmond.

WIELDS SHOT-GUN TO END HIS LIFE

Anthony Goodwin, Prosperous
Farmer of Louisa County,
Commits Suicide.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FREDERICK'S HALL, Va., June 29.—At 6 o'clock this morning, while his family was at breakfast, Anthony Goodwin, a prominent and prosperous farmer of Louisa county, a member and deacon of Bathpage Christian Church, committed suicide, shooting himself with a shotgun. No cause is known for his act. All day Monday he drove a reaper in his wheat field, and seemed in his usual good health and spirits. It is believed that his mind became deranged by the heat.

MUST PAY HARD CASH IN RETURN FOR PARDON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., June 29.—The payment of $600 cash is the unusual condition for a pardon by Governor Kitchen to James S. Carpenter, under five years' sentence from Polk county for robbing Miles Holbert of only three dollars. Of the payment required, $369 is for the fine, $82 for the costs of prosecution, $161 to J. T. Waldrop for the expense of extradition from Colorado, and $150 fees to lawyers who defended him.

PRISONER DISAPPEARS WHILE JURY IS OUT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROANOKE, Va., June 29.—T. A. Bryant, of Franklin, was on trial in the United States Court to-day, charged with removing untaxed liquor. He had been indicted on June 15, and if the jury reported him guilty it meant the penitentiary. Just as the jury filed in he stepped over the railing, slipped the door and was gone. The marshal and deputies searched in vain for him.

W. Garst, distiller, was given one year in Atlanta and fined $1,000 for removing untaxed liquor. He appealed.

The Merchants' National Bank will this year increase its dividend payments from 12 to 15 per cent. a year, the directors having declared a semi-annual dividend of 7 1/2 per cent., as compared with 6 per cent. paid last July. On a capital of $200,000 the dividend will be $15,000.

The Savings Bank of Richmond has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. semi-annually on its capital stock of $200,000, and will pay out $8,000 in July. A number of other dividends are yet to be announced.

Heard and Submitted.

The Corporation Commission yesterday heard the petition of certain citizens against the use of the right of way of the Southern Railway at Summerset, in Orange county, for private purposes. The commission heard evidence and argument upon the matter, and at the end of the hearing decided that its final opinion would be rendered later.

DISCUSSING WORK OF SUNDAY SCHOOL

Workers in This Field Are Now Holding Convention in Charlottesville.

CHRISTIAN INSTITUTION

All Doubts as to Ideals of University of Virginia Are Removed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 29.—The eighteenth annual session of the Virginia State Sunday School Association was opened to-night in Cabell Hall, at the University of Virginia. The spacious building was crowded with delegates from the various Sunday schools of the State and the 1,000 teachers in attendance upon the University Summer School.

The exercises were introduced by song and devotional services. A trained chorus choir of about 200 voices, composed of leading singers of Charlottesville, and a number of musicians from the summer school, furnished the music. The choir is directed by Professor L. L. Henry, of Chicago, one of the finest directors of music in this country.

The delegates were cordially welcomed by President E. A. Alderman on behalf of the University of Virginia; by Rev. Harry B. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, on behalf of the churches and schools of the city, and by W. T. Martin, of the Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the city. The response was made by Rev. Henry Pierce Atkins, of Richmond, one of the vice-presidents of the association. The devotional exercises preceding the welcoming addresses were conducted by the Rev. H. E. Johnson, of the First Methodist Church, of Charlottesville.

Following the appointment of committees, some routine work was disposed of, and a recording secretary and two assistants were elected.

The second session of the association will be held to-morrow morning in the First Baptist Church, of this city, when department conferences will be taken up. Following this and a few brief ceremonies, the delegates will again adjourn to Cabell Hall, at the university, and take up the reports of officers and hear an address on "The Teacher's Ministry," by Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., of Richmond.

The officers of the association are: President, H. C. Marchant, Charlottesville; Vice-Presidents, Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., Richmond; Rev. J. A. Taylor, Roanoke; Dr. Charles M. Lexington; Rev. Henry P. Atkins, Richmond; Rev. J. A. Wallace, D. D., Alexandria; W. C. Hoover, Timberville; A. E. Householder, Lovettsville; Arthur Robb, Herndon; Treasurer, N. Courtice Scott, Richmond; Secretary, C. W. Baines, Newport News.

President Alderman's address was timely and happy as usual, and the impression made upon the Sunday school workers was a profound one. If there ever had been any doubt as to the attitude of the university towards the church and religion they were removed. His remarks not only cleared them away, but in a convincing manner established the fact that the ideas of the university are founded on religion. Dr. Alderman completely refuted the general impression that Thomas Jefferson was not a believer. "Jefferson," he said, "looked at religion in the broad sense, which he looked upon as a duty which he owed to the State, and to the king."

In his opening words of welcome Dr. Alderman said that he considered it an honor and privilege to give to the members of the church, people as to the attitude of the university towards the church and religion they were removed. His remarks not only cleared them away, but in a convincing manner established the fact that the ideas of the university are founded on religion. Dr. Alderman completely refuted the general impression that Thomas Jefferson was not a believer. "Jefferson," he said, "looked at religion in the broad sense, which he looked upon as a duty which he owed to the State, and to the king."

There is no more impressive example in history of the solemn purpose of men to become better than the Sunday school.

In conclusion, Dr. Alderman said: "The student who has not felt in his soul the ethics of Jesus, and who has not brought himself into contact with the power and inspiration of Hebrew Scripture, is no more fitted into the actual life of Christendom than a man ignorant of Aristotle or Hegel or Kant can understand the movement of philosophy thought."

This tribute to Alderman was applauded by the delegates. Dr. A. L. Phillips, of Richmond, responded to the addresses of welcome in the absence of Rev. Henry Pierce Atkins, one of the vice-presidents of the association. He made a splendid tribute to Dr. Alderman as a speaker, educator and a Christian man. The university, he said, was the source of educational authority in Virginia, and the members of the State Sunday School Association were glad of the opportunity to come here and catch the spirit of the great institution in its educational ideals.

He said that he had found the State universities of the South Christian institutions.

A. M. Smith, of Falls Church, was chosen recording secretary and Charles B. Stevens and Linwood Warwick were named as his assistants.

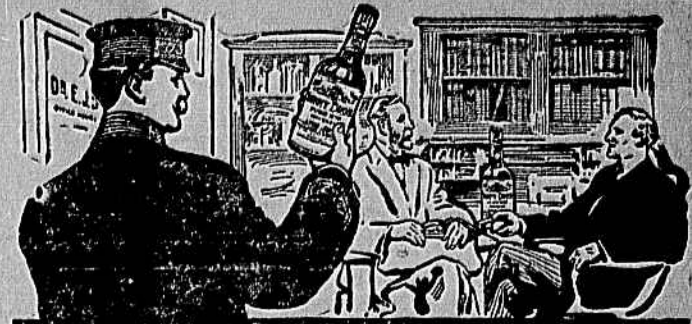

The following committees were appointed: Nominations—Rev. J. J. Pix of Manchester, chairman; Captain N. S. Shaw, of Drakes Branch; J. W. Borum, of Norfolk; Rev. W. Alken Smart, of Lynchburg; Walter B. Yount, of Bridgewater; A. M. Smith, of Falls Church; J. P. Pilippo, of Roanoke; A. R.

FATAL LEAP INTO BAY.

Fisherman Drowns Before Help Can Reach Him.

CAPE CHARLES, Va., June 29.—Patrick Flannigan, about thirty-six years old, leaped into the Chesapeake Bay at Sandy Island last night and was drowned before assistance could reach him. Flannigan came here a week ago and secured employment at Hoffman's Fish Plant, Sandy Island. But little is known of the man in this locality. It is said that he had been drinking heavily and his mind became affected shortly before he ended his life. His body was found this morning. An effort is being made by the authorities to locate some of his relatives, who are believed to be living at Reedville.

Wheat Yield Is Fair.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, Va., June 29.—The wheat harvest in this section has been completed and the farmers generally regard the yield as fair. The harvesting of winter oats is on and the crop is said to be a prolific one. Reports from various sections of the Lynchburg district show the young wheat to be in good condition, though there has been a trifle too much rain for the growth of the plants.
